Monday, March 1. 1703

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Feb. 20.

Wesel, February 13.

The Articles of the Capitulation of Rhinberg were as follows.

1. THE Town of Rhinberg shall be surrendred into the Hands of the Count de Lottum Lieutenant General of the Forces of the King of Prussia, Governour of Wesel, and Commander in Chief of the Blockade of Rhinberg. Agreed.

2. The Town of Rhinberg shall be Neuter. Rejected.

3. All things shall remain in the Condition they are at present, with respect to the Neutrality of that part of the Westphalia which belongs to the Elector of Cologne. Agreed.

4. Such a Garrison as shall be thought fit, may be put into Rhinberg. Agreed.

5. When a Treaty of Peace shall be set on foot, it shall be consider'd who has the Right to Rhinberg. Mean time the Commissaries that are in it, shall deliver to those of his Prussian Majesty, a true List of all that is in the Magazine, and shall shew them all the Mines and other hidden Works, without any Exception. Agreed.

6. The Place shall be restor'd in due time to the Elector of Cologne, without any Demands of him for Damages. This to be referr'd to the 4th Article.

7. The Rights and Privileges of that Elector on the Rhine, and other Rivers, shall be maintain'd. This shall be treated of in the Negotiation of Peace.

8. The Roman Catholick Religion shall be maintain'd in the same Condition as at this time in Rhinberg; And those of that Religion shall be continued in the free Possession and Enjoyment, not only of the Cathedral and other Churches, but of their Offices and Employments. Agreed.

9. The Inhabitants may repair the Churches and Houses damnified by the last Bombardment. And those who are minded to leave the Place, shall have liberty to depart within 3 Months.

10. The Officers of the Militia, and those of the Courts of Justice and others, shall keep their Offices with the same Advantages as at present. Agreed, Provided they act nothing contrary to their Duty.

11. The Roman Catholicks shall continue in the Possession of all Religious Houses and Hospitals. Agreed.

12. As for the Maintenance of the Garrison that shall be put into the Place, that Affair shall be concerted with the Magistrates, and be regulated by what is usually practis'd elsewhere. Agreed.

13. As for those of the Reform'd Religion, they shall be treated conformably to the Constitutions of the Empire. Agreed.

14. The Garrison now in Rhinberg shall march out, with Drums beating, Colours flying, Match lighted at both Ends, Ball in Mouth; and shall carry with them 3 Pieces of Cannon all 12 Pounders, and 2 Mortars, having the King of France's or Elector of Cologne's Arms on them, with Powder, &c. for 6 Discharges. Agreed.

15. The Garrison shall go out by the Rhinegate, and take their Route by the High-road of Gelder; the Officers and Soldiers shall either carry away or dispose of their Moveables, Baggage, Horses, &c. They shall be provided with a sufficient Convoy; and the Sick and Wounded shall be furnish'd with Waggons or other fitting Carriage. Agreed.

16. The Garrisons shall depart out of the Place within 6 Days after the Signing of the Capitulation, and be conducted to Louvain by the shortest way, and by easie Journeys, without passing thro' the Town of Gelder. Agreed, Provided it be at their own Expence, and that for Forrage in particular, they pay 10 Sols for every Ration with which they shall be furnish'd.

17. The Officers, and Soldiers, who being Wounded or Sick, and cannot go out with the Garrison, shall remain in the Place, with a Surgeon, till they are cured; They shall be furnish'd with all they want at a reasonable Price; and when they are able to travel, shall be likewise conducted the shortest way to Louvain. Agreed.

18. No Person of the Garrison shall be stopp'd for Debt, unless they can be shown and prov'd in due Form; and then the Marquess de Grammont, with the Commissary de la Guilloniere, shall endeavour to satisfie the Creditors. Agreed.

19. The Paymasters and Officers of Provisions and Hospitals, shall carry out with them all their Effects and Papers, without the least Molestation. Agreed.

20. During the time the Garrison stays in the Place, they shall be furnish'd with all the Provisions they shall have occasion for at the now current Rates. Agreed.

21. Immediately after the Ratification of these Articles, the Garrison shall deliver up the Gelder Gate; but no Person shall come within the Place. Agreed.

22. The

22. This Garrison, at their marching out, shall take as much Provisions with them, as they think they shall want on their Route. Agreed.

23. The Prisoners taken during the Blockade, shall be restor'd on both sides. Agreed.

24. No Officer or Soldier of the Garrison shall be seiz'd at going out of the Place. Agreed.

25. After the Capitulation is sign'd, the Marquês de Grammont shall have liberty to dispatch Couriers to Namur, Bruffels, Bonn, and Gelder, to the Elector of Cologne, the Marshal de Boufflers, the Marquês d'Allegre, &c. Agreed.

26. A Convoy shall be granted to go to fetch the Servants and Horses of this Garrison that are in Gelder. Agreed.

27. The Garrison shall march out on the day to be appointed at 9 in the Morning, without any Molestation or Hindrance. Agreed.

28. The Count de Lottum gives his Parole of Honour, that no Injury shall be offer'd to any Person of the Garrison, that goes out or stays in the Place. Agreed.

29. The Evening before the Garrison marches out, they shall be provided with Waggon, Horses, and other Carriages necessary for carrying off their Artillery and Baggage. Agreed, Provided it be at their own Expence.

30. Neither Party shall endeavour to persuade any Soldier to desert. Agreed, But all that are known for Deserters shall be stopp'd.

31. The Baggage of the Garrison shall be allow'd a sufficient Convoy.

32. Passports shall be endeavour'd to be procur'd for the Marquês de Grammont, his Servants and Horses, that they may go safe from Louvain into France or elsewhere, according as the King his Master shall order him. Agreed.

33. This Capitulation shall be sign'd and faithfully observ'd by the Generals on both sides; The Commander of the Convoy shall be a Hostage, and the Marquês de Grammont shall leave behind him two Officers Hostages for the safe return of the Convoy. Agreed.

34. After the Capitulation is sign'd, the 2 Officers that were sent to Wezel for Hostages of the Capitulation shall be releas'd. Agreed.

35. The Prisoners taken in the Blockade by the Forces of the King of Prussia or his Allies, shall be safely conducted to Louvain within 15 days.
